

BECKY BRELAND, J.D.

PRINCIPAL CONSULTANT

Becky brings 23 years of experience in financial protection regulations and compliance to Capco's Regulatory Advisory Services, serving as manager as well as Editor-in-Chief of the Big Orange Book (BOB). Becky is also responsible for responding to clients' federal compliance inquiries; monitoring upcoming changes to Federal Regulations; developing Quick Reference Guides; and providing quality control for products and services. Prior to joining RAS, Becky was responsible for maintaining compliance programs for a large regional bank and several community banks, where she was able to ensure top compliance ratings. She worked closely with FDIC, FRB, and OCC examiners during compliance and safety and soundness examinations. Becky earned her Bachelor of Commerce and Business Administration with honors from the University of Alabama and her law degree from the University of Alabama School of Law.

FINANCIAL EXPERTISE

- 20+ years' experience in federal consumer financial protection regulations and Bank Secrecy Act compliance

CAPCO HIGHLIGHTS

- Editor in Chief of Big Orange Book, A Guide to Compliance.
- Works directly with regulatory agencies to develop content for their custom training programs
- Developed online training and webinars for Capco

EDUCATION / CERTIFICATION

- Bachelor of Commerce and Business Administration with honors from the University of Alabama
- Law degree from the University of Alabama School of Law

RELEVANT EXPERIENCE

- Responsible for responding to clients' federal compliance inquiries; monitoring upcoming changes to Federal Regulations; developing Quick Reference Guides; and providing quality control for products and services
- While working for a large regional bank and several community banks, Becky was responsible for maintaining compliance programs and ensuring top compliance ratings
- Worked closely with FDIC, FRB, and OCC examiners during compliance and safety and soundness examinations